THONEY'S HIT IN TWELFTH WINS AN EXCITING GAME FOR NEW YORK AMERICANS. The results:

After holding the lead since the season began the New York Nationals fell back to third place yesterday. They were beaten by Chicago, and Cincinnati beat Philadelphia. The three leaders are, however, very close; New York can easily regain the lead; St. Louis won at Brooklyn's expense, and Pittsburg toyed with Boston. In the tenth, eleventh and twelfth innings not a Chicagoan reached first base. Anderson and Thoney made plays that evoked admiration from those not too prejudiced to show it. The New Yorks had men on bases in both the eighth and ninth innings, but White was cool and was backed up ably, barring a muli by "Jiggs" Donohue, which cost nothing. CINCINNATI, May 20.—It was not until the ninth inning to-day that the Philadelphias made a hit off Harper, who was wild but extremely effective at all times. The visitors fielded poorly and the Reds hit the ball hard. The score: Ganzel's two-bagger in the twelfth was a slashing drive, the ball going to the left field fence. Thoney missed fire on two attempts to bunt, then swung hard, and, the ball shooting out to left field, Ganzel scampered to the plate. The score: PRILADELPHIA. WASHINGTON, May 20.—Case Patten pitched in exceptionally fine form against the Detroits to-day. Twice with men on bases and no one out, Patten struck out two Detroit batters and retired the third on an easy fly. SYDNEY PAGET'S RUBICON FILLY BEATS INCANTATION.

John E. Madden's City Bank Takes the Handicap in a Gallop—Girdle, The Claimant, Hortensia and Go Between Also Victorious at Westchester Track.

Sydney Paget's fast filly Czaraphine, by Bydney Paget's fast filly Czaraphine, by Rubicon—Seraphin, 6 to 5 favorite, won the Galety Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, at four and a haif furlongs, Eclipse course, yesterday. Nearly 12,000 persons went to Merrie Park to see this race and incidentally to back the winner, who was widely tipped. Andrew Miller's Incantation, by Horoscope—White Rese, took up a ten round resulty. White Rose, took up a ten pound penalty for winning the Fashion Stakes last Saturday, all of the others receiving this amount of weight from her. Czaraphine was heavily played at 6 to 5, Incantation going back a point to sixes, while James R. Keene's Fancy Dress was reduced to sevens. Czaraphine was quick as a flash in getting away from the post, and Lyne had her well in hand all the She won easily by a length in the fast of 0:52%, with Incantation taking the place by a head from Pierre Lorillard's Chrysitis, by Golden Garter—Aurania, 15 to 1. John E. Madden's colors were carried to the front for the first time during the present meeting, when City Bank, 100 pounds, won the handicap at a mile and a sixteenth over the hill in a gallop. The Meddler horse was a 2 to 1 favorite, showed his heels at the outset and same home directions. outset and came home five lengths to the good in 1:46, a half a second slower than the track record. He was in receipt of twentythree pounds from the Columbia Stable's Graziallo, 7 to 1, who finished second, a length before E. R. Thomas's Andy Williams, 7 to 1, the latter getting up in time under a hard drive to secure third place from Oarsman by a neck. Major Daingerfield, the top weight, was always last, and got a disgrace-

E. R. Thomas's Young Henry, with 122 pounds, was the favorite in the first event, run over the Eclipse course, but, after leading a greater part of the way, he weakened, swerving under the whip and bumping Lady Mirthful, a 25 to 1 shot, who had been at his heels all the journey. Lyne then got up with Girdle, a 5 to 1 chance, who swerved, too, when touched up with the bat, but won in a drive by a length and a half in 1:11%. Lady Mirthful beat Young Henry a head. T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s, Knight of Ellerslie colt, The Claimant, trained by John E. Madden, was a 1 to 2 favorite in the second race, for maiden two-year-olds, at five furlongs, Edipse course. He led always and won easily by a length and a half in0:59%. David Gideon's Escutcheon, backed down to fours, ran second, three lengths before the Albemarie Stable's Lilac, 10 to 1. H. B. Duryea's Hortensia, even money favorite, made the pace in the fourth race, at seven furlongs, Withers course, and came home with three lengths to spare in 1:28. Gold Saint, who was second to the stretch, stopped, and Tim Payne got up on the rail taking the place from John A. Drake's South Trimble, 3 to 2, by a neck. The latter made up a lot of ground in the last furlong and was three parts of a length in front of Buckleys, with Gold Saint close behind him.

Newton Bennington's disappointing Charles Elwood was the choice in the fifth event, at a of the stretch he succumbed to the challenge of Go Between, second choice, who beat him easily by two lengths in 1:40%. A length and a half behind the favorite, E. R. Thomas's Trepan, 7 to 1, got third money from Namtor by a head. Four favorites and a second choice landed the coin for the form players.

Crack Two-Year-Olds to Meet in Nationa Stallion Stakes.

The Westchester Racing Association offers fine card for Morris Park this afternoon. The leading feature is the National Stallion Stakes for two-year-olds, Eclipse course, in which the best two-year-olds seen so far this season will go to the post. Newton Bennington has named Song and Wine and Blandy. The former has already won the Juvenile and Leavening the sand is regarded. Bennington has named Song and Wine and Blandy. The former has already won the Juvenile and Laureate stakes and is regarded as a high-class cott. H. B. Duryea's Tanya, who hung up a world's record for four and a half furiongs recently with 107 pounds, must pick up 119 to-day, which may prove to be too great a task, although she has done some phenomenal work for the race. James R. Keene's Augur and Veto are both speedy youngsters, while the National Stable has a crackajack filly in Belle Strome, a full sister to Eugenia Burch. She won the first time out in a gallop from a good field.

For the Ladies' Stakes, for three-year-old fillies, at a mile, Newton Bennington's Beldame, winner of the Carter Handicap and third in the Metropolitan, will probably rule favorite, although she has S. S. Brown's Audience, the Albemarie Stable's Fine Art and Marjoram, Fred Gebhard's Ragian and E. R. Thomas's Dimple to beat. A fine lot of jumpers are named to go in the Grand National Steeplechase, while the $60,000 Hermis will shoulder 128 pounds in the handicap at a mile with such good horses as Hurstbourne, Lux Casta, Toboggan, Leonidas, Lord Badge, Buttons and Hello ready to make it interesting for him. Palmbearer should rule favorite in the first event, with Lincroft the choice in the second. The entries are as follows:

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR MORRIS PARK GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

BOOKMAKERS ALARMED AT DAVID GIDEON'S PLUNGE.

Backs Escutcheon Down From 30 to 1 to Fours, and the Celt Runs Second-Mere Rumers About E. R. Thomas's Dissatisfaction With His Horses-Notes.

David Gideon and his friends came near pulling off a tremendous killing in the second race at Westchester yesterday. Mr. Gideon started his celt Escutcheon, by Golderest— Affect, and so well had the youngster's work been kept under cover that the layers quoted as much as 30 to 1 against him. It was not long before there was a small panic in the betting ring, for Mr. Gideon's commissioners were busy putting down the wagers as fast as possible. Jesse Lewisohn also had the inside track, as he and Mr. Gideon are very chummy, and in a short time the odds had tumbled to 4 to 1. While the horses were on the way to the post the money was still going on in chunks, so that there was a feeling of apprehension on the part of the bookies in all parts of the pavilion. Escutcheon was not quite up to a winning race, however, and ran second, but at that the books got a hard The Drake-Gates combination burned up a bunch on South Trimble in the fourth race. Two to one was the first quotation on offer.

but the layers soon rubbed to 3 to 2. In spite of this heavy play, the public remained loyal to H. B. Duryea's Hortensia, and thousands were won over her signal victory. City Bank and Czaraphine also made big holes in the layers' bankrolls. It was a hard day all around for the pencillers. all around for the pencillers. S. S. Brown's star three-year-old filly Audience, who will robably run in the Ladies Stakes to-day, arrived here yesterday from Louisville. She made the trip in a specially prepared private horse car, her only com-panions being a stable hand and a goat who came along as a mascot. The filly was in fine trim when she reached the stable and got a gallop last evening.

Persistent rumors were in circulation the track yesterday to the effect that E. R. Thomas is dissatisfied with the way his horses have been running so far this season. It was said that Mr. Thomas might sell all of his horses instead of a few of them and that a certain well known owner was ready to take them off his hands. According to a yarn in the betting ring $25,000 was lost on Mr. Thomas's Palmbearer on Thursday, but how much of this amount was wagered by the young millionaire could not be learned. The lack of success of the Thomas horses has been the talk of turfmen for several weeks. been the talk of turimen for several weeks. They have been invariably backed by the stable, but with indifferent results. Mr. Thomas attended the races yesterday and saw Young Henry, Trepan and Andy Williams all beaten in his colors. It is said that he sent a large commission into the ring on Young Henry to win, but it could not be learned whether he played the others straight or not. Mr. Thomas's racing partner is Alexander Shields, one of the cleverest horsemen on the turf. The actual training of the Thomas horses has been conducted by Shields's son.

Mr. Thomas's $60,000 Hermis will start for the first time this season to-day at West-chester, providing the weather and track conditions are favorable. When asked if the Hermence horse would be a starter in the Brooklyn Handicap, his owner said yesterday: "It all depends on how he performs to-morrow. If he goes well and shows no ill effects from the race I think he will go to the post next Thursday."

Immediately after Hortensia had been returned victorious yesterday, H. B. Duryes and his trainer, John W. Rogers, jumped into an automobile and hurried off to Sheepsinto an automobile and nurried on to sheepshead Bay to see Irish Lad work for the Brooklyn. The Candlemas cott is said to be in superb condition and is a sure starter. As Africander is also certain to go the Brooklyn will be a horserace worth going across the continent to see, no matter who the other starters may be. starters may be.

Frank J. Farrell has signed J. Jones to ride for him during the rest of the season. The contract was fixed up yesterday and calls for a fat salary. Jones is 16 years old and can do 93 pounds. He was one of the best riders in California last winter, handling thirteen winners in one week and thirty-three the last month of the season. He is a coolheaded sary. Several other owners were after his services, but Mr. Farrell's offer looked the best

When City Bank won the last race John E. Madden wore a smile that would not come off. It was his first victory of the season on the local tracks, and the second time that City Bank had won since his first start three years ago. The horse has class, but in spite of numerous races has been a consistent dis-appointment. Perhaps this is the turning oint in Madden's surprising run of ill luck. H. M. Gerrens, one of the officials of the Buffalo track, saw the races at Westchester. He said that the coming meeting at Kenil-worth Park is creating a great deal of interest up the State and that a better class of horses will be seen there than ever before.

"Is Charl es Elwood a good horse whose bac feet make it impossible for him to beat selling platers, or is he a hound, pure and simple?" Many horsemen were asking questions of this kind after the Prestonpans colt was beaten by the plater Go Between in the fifth race. When the colt was led off to the barn after the race, Trainer Fred Burlew looked sad. "I thought somebody would claim him," said he; "but no such luck!"

Sandy McNaughton evidently has a white elephant on his hands in Mackey Dwyer. McNaughton paid $5,200 for the "gift horse" last year, and has been patiently waiting for him to earn his feed ever since. Mackey Dwyer is a notoriously bad actor at the post, and has been left half a dozen times. He has always worn blinkers, but McNaughton sent him to the barrier yesterday without them. Mackey Dwyer, however, was up to his old tricks and propped himself as the gate went up. If he had broken with the others he might have been close to the winner, as he made up a lot of ground in the stretch.

"He'll win some day," said his owner, with after the race. a sigh, after the race, whereupon a hard-hearted bystander remarked: "Yes, when the others all drop dead!"

Starter Fitzgerald put Mackey Dwyer on the schooling list, also Pompano, who refused to break, too, at the word of command. In starting Titian and Plato in the Grand National Steeplechase to-day, Mr. Chamblet wants it understood that these are the best jumpers in his stable that are in proper shape to go to the post, as Land of Clover and Scotch sh are both recovering from the effects of The Galety Stakes has produced these winners since its first running in 1896: Royal Rose, Kitefoot, Ornamental, Fond Hopes, Sweet Lavender, Luciline, Mary Street and Dovecot. Czaraphine's time yesterday was three-quarters of a second slower than the best record for the race.

John Hooe, a prominent hunt club man from Warrenton, Va., who was recently elected a member of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association, arrived here yesterday to see the running of the Grand National this afternoon.

Jockey Frank O Neill will not be able to ride for two weeks yet.

Puglists Charley Mitchell, Dave Sullivan, Jack McAuliffe, Kid Broad and Tom Sharkey made a picturesque group on the lawn dur-ing the running of the Galety Stakes. Mitch-ell plays every race and is a winner on the PUNISHMENT FOR CYCLISTS. Seven Suspended for Hindering Taylor-McFarland Gets Three Years.

After a lengthy and very profitable cauturned to this country, but not to race with his fellow cyclists. McFarland is now at his home in San José, where he arrived from San Francisco on Tuesday last. Yesterday mail advices from Australia reached New York with the news that when McFarland left Australia he was under the ban of a three years' suspension, imposed by the council of the League of New South Wales Wheelmen. Hardy Downing, the other American rider, was suspended for one year at the same time for the same offence. As the National Cycling Association recognizes and sustains the edicts of the Australian governing body, McFarland will be unable to ride here for three years unless his punishment is con-

McFarland will be unable to ride here for three years unless his punishment is conmuted.

McFarland and Downing were two of seven who were suspended, the others being Australians. The exact cause for the action is not known, but it is intimated that the men were banded together to prevent "Major" Taylor from winning the "Sydney Thousand" on March 23, and to "fix" the race so as to reap a harvest through the bookmakers. The "Sydney Thousand" is the greatest cycling stake in the world, the first prize being $3,750. McFarland finished fifth in the race and "Major" Taylor fourth.

According to advices received by the Bicycling tworld, the trouble developed in the last heat of the race and the result was protested by A. E. O'Brien who finished second. The League of N. S. W. Wheelmen held a special meeting to consider the protest, with the results that a new award of the prize money was ordered and seven men disciplined.

O'Brien, who finished second from the 186-yard mark received the first prize of £750, and the second prize of £100 was given to Major Taylor, who finished fourth from scratch; the third prize was not awarded at all. The four riders who kept their records clear were O'Brien, Major Taylor, Don Walker, the Australsian champion, and F. H. Scheps, who won the last Austral Wheel race.

McFarland was evidently considered the ringleader of the offenders and was disqualified for three years; Larry Corbett of New South Wales, who won the race from the 120-yard mark, was disqualified for one year; Hardy Downing was disqualified for three years; Larry Corbett of With a six months sentence.

MUNROE HAS BEEN FOUND.

Butte Miner Arrives at San Francisco and is Training for Fight With Jeffrics.

Jack Munroe, the Butte Miner, whose whereabouts have been shrouded in deep mystery, has been found. Murroe is now at San Francisco, and he will begin active work for his contest with Jim Jeffries, which is to take-place on June 17. Munroe came direct from Hot Springs, where he says he has been all the time. The Miner has been training while the sports thought he was lost and declares that he could enter the ring with the champion at a week's notice and make an excellent showing.

Munroe will have his quarters just outside of San Francisco and will have Tim McGrath and Kid McCoy to work with him. Munroe realizes that he is going to meet the best heavyweightof the past decade and expects to be in the best of trim on the night of the mill. With the exception of a bruised finger joint which resulted from playing baseball at thot Springs Munroe is physically all right. The San Francisco sports had a chance to size the Miner up where he left the train, and they voted him all right. Munroe weighs a trifle over 200 pounds. He says that he will not weigh more than 195 pounds when he steps into the first.
